Report of the FDP

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

A Faculty Development Program was held on 26 Feb - 2nd March 2024 at the Tunga Restaurant.

The program began by revisiting the points of the previous FDP, especially Bloom's Taxonomy, Instructional and Course Objectives and Learning Outcomes of a class.

The participants through experiential learning practiced to write a lesson plan and its structure. Two content presentation methods - Lecture and Demonstration were covered in details. Advantages, challenges and pitfalls were covered along with methods of conducting them with tips.

Personal Presentation Styles of presenters were discussed and participants were helped to identify their own challenges in the Verbal, Vocal and Visual areas. Tips on how to overcome them were discussed.

The participants then discussed Academic duties in the college and the challenges they face.

The program ended with a brief of the next FDP covering Interactive Methods used in class. Participants also requested for a session on Time Management.
