3. Review of half yearly (1st term) report of IQAC of 2023-24

IQAC presented the report for first half of 2023-24. It is learnt that IQAC is putting better efforts to enhance the quality as well as quantity. It is noted that IQAC with team of staff during quality work for curriculum aspect especially curriculum delivery, curriculum flexibility and curriculum enrichment, major number of students asked for internships , project work, in teaching learning the intake of students is worried matter, however. The social justification is given proper to the reservation students .feedback not asked for students. in research work there is worried situation .no one is happy with this aspect . evaluation and extension is satisfactory. In infrastructure there is positive improvement in the ICT FACILITIES AND ICT CLASSROOMS. The audited statements shows proper, transparent mobilization and utilization of funds . in student support , staff member always there to help support students for scholarships , free ships, pass percentage , career counselling and placement . governance management is actively working along with IQAC momentum . institute focus on institutional values and best practices to serve best to students.

4. Review of the suggestions / compliances if NAAC peer team –

Discussion was opened about suggestions given by NAAC peer team. The compliances is a continuous process. It does not complete in one or two months time. It is slow-steady process. Members suggested to pay continuous attention and follow up on every suggestions of NAAC peer team as step forward to quality betterment. The compliances which are related to the human resources in many limitations of skills of job aspirant and limitations of monetary funds available with the governance.

5. Second half term semester milestones to achieve.

The committee member, shown satisfaction on process of annual quality enhancement they suggested to accelerate it . the points like research , grants, publication are very least , that to compensate in second half of the year.
