Professor:	4
Associate Professor:	3
Assistant Professor:	2

20. First-Six-Months as PhD Student

All the students admitted to the PhD Degree program in different disciplines will complete the following four tasks, as the case be: Orientation Program; Formulation and Approval of PhD Research Project from Research and Recognition Committee (RRC); Approval of project from Ethics Committee; and Validation of Tools for Research.

20.1 Orientation Program

All the students admitted to the PhD Degree program in different disciplines undergo an orientation program which is spread over three months. The course work is a prerequisite for PhD preparation. The University conducts examination following the completion of course work, passing the exam is an essential requirement before being eligible to submit PhD Synopsis. The Course work is conducted only once in an academic year.

Recognizing that the students admitted to PhD Degree program are from diverse fields, the focus of the Orientation Program is to familiarize them of research methodologies, biostatistics, project and manuscript writing, ethics and ethical values in research and some other aspects. Faculty members from various departments deliver well structured lectures during this program.

During this period, the students also get themselves familiarized with the research facilities, available in various departments including at the hospital. All such facilities are generally available to all students for their research work. The students also learn new techniques used in a research laboratories

The University has also established a Central Research Laboratory with major equipment and facilities. One again all students can use those facilities.

20.2 Mandatory requirement of Orientation Program

20.2.1 To join and complete Orientation Program. It is a three month program, lecturers are generally for two days a week (Friday and Saturday). More than 75% attendance is essential. Only those fulfilling this requirement are eligible to appear in the examination conducted at the end of Orientation Course

20.2.2 To qualify the examination, minimum pass percentage 55%, is essential to be eligible to submit PhD Synopsis.

20.2.3 Students failing in the first attempt will be given another chance to Qualify the examination. However, it will not be mandatory to attend the lectures of Orientation Program, provided the candidate had earlier complied with the mandatory requirement of 75% attendance.

20.3 Formulation of Research Project

Simultaneous to the above mentioned orientation program, all students are expected to conceptualize and formulate research project, in consultation with PhD Guide.

The format of preparing a detailed proposal is available with the Research Secretariat of MGMIHS. In brief, the proposal should include or provide:

20.3.1 Outline the proposed research topics in the context of previous work.

20.3.2 Highlight about your awareness of current information in the field and area of study.

20.3.3 Identify the research questions (Objectives) which have not been addressed (suitable gaps in knowledge) and the rational for doing the study.

20.3.4 Propose a hypothesis which the study would address.

20.3.5 Identify the research methodology, study design which will help answer the research questions.

20.3.6 Nature of the data to be collected.

20.3.7 Discussion on expected outcome and usefulness of information which is expected to emerge.

20.3.8 Systematic compilation and organization of bibliography of literature on the topic considered for research.

20.3.9 Source of funding for research. The proposal should be submitted to the Research Secretariat, MGMIHS before First November or First June of the academic year.

20.4 Approval of Research Project by Research and Recognition Committee

20.4.1 Research and Recognition Committee (RRC), which comprises of highly accomplished scientists from both within and outside MGMIHS, reviews all the new PhD proposals. PhD scholar, in the presence of PhD Guide and Co-Guide, makes a detailed presentation of the research proposal with emphasis on rational, objectives, expected outcome and usefulness of study.

20.4.2 Approval from RRC is mandatory prior to start of research work. The approval can be either with or without modification of the proposal. RRC may even reject the proposal and suggest working on some other related project. It may suggest resubmission of the proposal incorporating changes suggested by the Committee. Recommendations of RRC are final and students have to comply with the same.

20.4.3 Meetings of RRC, for the two batches of students, are generally held between 15 to 30 November and 15 to 30 May of the academic year. PhD students have to submit project proposal to Research Secretariat at least 15 days prior to the meeting.

20.5 Approval of Research Project by Ethics Committee

20.5.1 MGMIHS has two ethics committees namely; Institutional Experimental Animal Ethics Committee, registered with the Committee for the Purpose of Control and Supervision of Experiments on Animals (CPCSEA), Government of India; and the other Ethics Committee on Clinical Studies, registered with Drug Controller General of India. The projects necessitating the use of experimental animals or clinical material including clinical trial will have to be cleared by the respective ethics committee before initiating research work. The composition of both the committees is as per the guidelines of respective regulatory body.

20.5.2 The students whose projects have been approved by the RRC will submit research proposal in the desired format (available with Research Secretariat) for the consideration of ethics committee. Once again, student along with PhD Guide and C-Guide will be invited to this meeting. Meetings of Ethics Committee are held 15 to 30 days after the RRC meeting.

20.6 Validation of Tools for Research

20.6.1 Since a number of PhD research projects require data collection through well structured questionnaires, the University has constituted a "Committee to Develop and Validate Tools including Questionnaire for Medical and Health Research". This ensures that the tools to be used for data collection are validated by experts in the field and the research output is valid and acceptable.

20.6.2 Meeting of Tool Validation Committee is held about three months after the Ethics Committee. PhD students whose research projects necessitates collection of information using structured Questionnaire or Focus Group Discussion will get their tools validated from this committee before initiating data collection.

20.7 Monitoring and Evaluation of PhD Research Progress

20.7.1 Scientific Advisory Committee (SAC)

SAC periodically monitors the progress of PhD research work till the submission of PhD synopsis. Approval of PhD Synopsis by SAC is an essential requirement to be eligible to submit thesis.

20.7.2 All students are expected to submit progress report, using the format provided by Research Secretariat, every six month.

20.7.3 Meetings of SAC will be held every six month, in which the students will present the progress of work. They will also mention about the difficulties encountered, if any, and other achievements such as participation in conferences, workshops and scientific papers published or submitted for publication in journals.

20.7.4 In the event of SAC not being satisfied with the progress of work, it will be communicated to the PhD student and the Guide.

20.7.5 SAC may recommend extension of the minimum required time for submission of PhD thesis.

20.7.6 The SAC can recommend termination of studentship, at any given point, if it finds that progress of work has been totally unsatisfactory despite previous warnings/notifications. In case of termination, all members of SAC should unanimously make the recommendation with adequate justification. In instances where PhD Guide is not satisfied with the recommendations of the SAC, he/she may refer the matter back with comments to the SAC for reconsideration and suggestions.

20.8 Change of Research Topic

Normally a student shall complete doctoral research on the subject title approved by RRC, under the supervision of the research guide. However, under exceptional circumstances, a student may be permitted, only once, to change the title and objectives of research. The change may necessitate seeking fresh approval from RRC and the Ethics Committee. In such cases, the student has to work for another minimum essential period (two or three years) before being eligible to submit PhD Thesis. If the candidate has already completed the Orientation Program or attended the mandatory lecturers he/she will not have to repeat the same.

21 Submission of PhD Thesis

A PhD student will be eligible to submit thesis after meeting the following requirements:

21.1 Meets the minimum time requirement. However, minimum time requirement does not imply that the student has to submit PhD thesis on completion of time requirement.

21.2. For students holding either masters Degree in biomedical sciences (non-medical courses), nursing and physiotherapy, or MBBS Degree or Diploma in any of the medical subjects, the minimum time requirement is three years from the date of registration in PhD Degree program.

21.3 For students holding either master's Degree in medical subjects (MS or MD) or higher medical Degree (MCh, DM), the minimum time requirement is three years from the date of registration in PhD Degree program.

21.4 Has successfully completed the Orientation Program.

21.5 Has completed the project as approved by RRC including the recommendations of SAC and PhD Guide.

21.6 Has published at least one original research paper in peer reviewed indexed scientific journal of repute.

21.7 PhD Synopsis has been approved by the SAC.

21.8 Tuition fee and other dues have been paid to the University.

21.9 Both student and PhD Guide have given a certificate that the work is original, has been carried out by the student and no plagiarism/dishonesty has been done.

21.10 Thesis has been scanned using Plagiarism software.

21.2 PhD Synopsis

21.2.1 The primary objective of PhD synopsis is to enable the reader to judge whether prima facie there exists a case for accepting the proposed PhD thesis for the award of PhD Degree. The synopsis should, therefore, clearly list the contributions resulting from the investigations, which have led to advancement of knowledge.

21.2.2 Synopsis should also contain a brief account of the existing knowledge and the inadequacy or gaps in knowledge that had led the candidate to pursue work on that topic.

21.2.3 List of publications (including published, accepted, submitted in the refereed journals and conferences) or Patents (granted or applied) from the PhD work should be included.

21.2.4 The synopsis should be a concise summary (including Figures, Tables, few References, and List of Publications), around 8-10 typed pages having 1.5 spacing.

21.3 Approval of Synopsis by SAC

SAC which had been monitoring the progress of research work, since the registration of student for PhD Degree, will also review PhD Synopsis. Approval of Synopsis by SAC is essential before the submission of Thesis. To seek approval, the candidate will submit 10 copies of the Synopsis at least 15 days prior to the scheduled meeting of SAC. The candidate will be asked to make a detailed presentation during the SAC meeting. SAC may approve the Synopsis without any modification or additional work. SAC may also suggest to the research scholar to: (i) perform some additional work; and/or (ii) incorporate all those feasible comments/suggestions highlighted during the presentation. The decision of SAC will be final.

21.4 Eligibility for Submission of Thesis

A PhD student will be eligible to submit PhD thesis only after meeting the following requirements:

21.4.1 Completion of minimum essential duration from the time of registration in the PhD Degree program. It is three years for students with postgraduate qualification in non-medical subjects, MBBS or postgraduate diploma in medical subject. It is two years for those holding postgraduate Degree in any of the medical subjects (MD or MS or higher Degree).

21.4.2 Successful completion of Orientation Program including course work.

21.4.3 Approval of PhD Synopsis by the SAC.

21.4.4 Publication of at least one paper from PhD research work in any peer reviewed indexed scientific journal. Additional publications, preferably in PubMed indexed journals, would be to the advantage of the candidate. These would enhance the credibility, competence and confidence of the student to face the thesis defence. In the event a candidate is an author of a Patent awarded on the PhD research work, it should be reported.

21.4.5 Payment of all dues to the University, and submission of NOC from the Research Secretariat.

21.5 Presentation of Thesis

21.5.1 PhD thesis can be submitted between two to six months after the approval of PhD Synopsis by SAC. In case a student is unable to submit thesis within the stipulated, can seek more time (up to six months), however will have to pay fee for another semester.

21.5.2 The thesis has to give an in depth account of the background and scientific question addressed, as well as a detailed description of the experiments conducted, followed by analysis of results.

21.5.3 Generally the format of presenting the PhD thesis includes: Introduction; Literature review; Methodology; Results; Discussion including analysis of data; Conclusions and implications, and Bibliography in Vancouver Style. The thesis will also include: Letter of Approval from RRC, and Institutional Ethics Committee. The list of publications and patent filed should be given. Copies of the papers published and those communicated should be attached.

21.6 Specifications for Writing Thesis

Candidate submitting thesis for the award of PhD Degree are required to follow the rules noted below regarding the size, style and binding of thesis:

21.6.1 To submit five copies of thesis (MS Word, 6.0 version or higher) along with three soft copies in PDF format. The soft copies should be saved using the file name: "author.doc" i.e puri.doc (author is the surname of the author).

21.6.2 There is no formal minimum or maximum length of PhD Thesis, although. It is expected to be around 150 pages (Paper: A4, 22.5 X 29 cm; Font: Times New Roman; Line Spacing: 1.5). The PhD thesis should be typed on both sides of the page using 130 gsm sunlit bond white paper.

21.6.3 Provide title in Times New Roman, 14 point along with author's name and required details.

21.6.6 Set the body text justified.

21.6.7 Print figures and tables interspersed with text and place them as near the point of mention as possible. Add descriptors to tables and figures.

21.6.8 All references in the thesis should be using Vancouver Style. It should include: names of all authors, complete title of the work, name of journal, volume, page numbers and year (and editor and publishers as necessary).

21.6.9 Use international SI (System of Units). If other units are used, provide approximate Conversion, factors for SI Units.

21.6.10 No. Ornamental bordering of the sides is permitted.

21.6.11 No. dedication page is permitted.

21.6.12 Thesis shall have copies of certificates, as given in Annexure.

22 Evaluation of PhD Thesis

PhD Thesis will be evaluated by three examiners of which one will be the PhD Guide and two external examiners, one should be out of state.

22.1 Submission of Thesis

On completing all requirements, the candidate through PhD Guide and Head of Institution would submit four copies of the bound thesis along with PDF copy on pen drive. Copies of Thesis will be submitted to the Research Secretariat, which after ensuring compliance of all statutory requirements, forward to the Examination Section of MGMIHS.

22.2 Unfair Means and Plagiarism

Research Secretariat of the University shall evolve mechanism using well developed software and gadgets to detect plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. While submitting for evaluation, the thesis shall have an undertaking from the research scholar and a certificate from the Research Supervisor attesting to the originality of the work, vouching that there is no plagiarism.

In addition, the Research Secretariat shall submit Thesis for getting "Certification of Plagiarism" from an approved agency. Plagiarism can be allowed 10% Total Continuous words not exceeding 10 words.

In case a PhD student is found adopting or suspected of adopting unfair means or plagiarism, penal action shall be taken by the institute, as may be necessary, to uphold the sanctity and integrity of research work and credibility of the institute.

In case of plagiarism, the Research Secretariat will refer the case to the Vice Chancellor, and PhD Guide through proper channel. The Chairman of SAC shall take suo-moto cognizance of all such cases.

Plagiarism can also be reported by any person to the Research Secretariat or Head of the Department, who will forward the matter to the Vice Chancellor for consideration and decision.

In case plagiarism is confirmed, Research Secretariat will return PhD thesis and/or the research paper to PhD Guide and Head of the Department for necessary action.

22.3 Appointment of Examiners

22.3.1 After the PhD Synopsis has been approved, PhD Guide will submit to the Controller of Examinations names of five senior faculty members from reputed institutions from within Maharashtra and another five from outside Maharashtra who can possibly evaluate the thesis. One of the external examiners can be from foreign institutions. The suggested examiners must be those who have vast experience in research, particularly in the field in which the candidate has worked for PhD Degree. If possible, PhD Guide should enclose brief biodata of the proposed examiners.

22.3.2 The names of examiners are to be submitted in a sealed cover marked as 'confidential', along with complete postal address with pin code, email, telephone/mobile no. etc. of the proposed examiners.

22.3.3 The Examination Section, after due scrutiny, will submit the list to the Vice Chancellor who will identify two examiners (Numbered as 1 and 2) from each of the two categories i.e. within Maharashtra and outside Maharashtra. The Vice Chancellor may, if found necessary, either ask for another list of examiners from the PhD Guide or decide the examiners at his/her discretion. The Vice Chancellor will send the approved names to the Controller of Examinations, MGMIHS for further action.

22.4 Seeking Consent from Examiners

22.4.1 The Controller of Examinations will initiate the process of seeking concurrence from those examiners who are marked as Number 1 in each of the two categories. In the event of an examiner "marked 1" not available for any reason, the Controller of Examinations will seek consent from Examiner "marked 2" in the same category.

22.4.2 The Controller of Examinations would forward a copy of PhD Synopsis to the suggested examiners, while seeking their consent to evaluate the thesis. This will help the proposed Examiner to determine their own competency to assess the quality and originality of research work.

22.4.3 The Controller of Examinations should seek consent from the examiners within two months of submission of Synopsis, so that the Thesis can be mailed to them immediately after the candidate had submitted the same.

22.5 Dispatch of Thesis

Hard copies of PhD thesis will be sent to the examiners through registered post. The Envelop will also include detailed self-explanatory format in which the Examiner is expected to provide the report. Each examiner will have to make clear recommendation whether the thesis has been (1) accepted, (2) accepted with modifications, or (3) rejected (Annexure : Format). In the meantime, the PhD Guide, as the internal examiner, will also submit his/her evaluation report to the Controller of Examinations, MGMIHS using the same format.

22.6 Action on Reports Received from Examiners

The detailed comments from the three examiners on a prescribed format will be received by the Controller of Examinations, who will ensure that all three evaluation reports are in order. Further action on the reports will be as follows:

22.6.1 Thesis Accepted

If all the three examiners recommend accept of thesis without modification, the Examination Section to initiate process to hold viva voce examination.

22.6.2 Thesis Rejected

If two of the three examiners recommend rejection of PhD thesis, the thesis will be considered as rejected. Each examiner recommending rejection will provide detailed report and reasons for recommending rejection of thesis.

If only one external examiner recommends rejection, the thesis will be sent to a fourth examiner from the list of approved examiners.

If the fourth examiner also recommends rejection, then thesis will be taken as rejected, and viva-voce examination will not be conducted.

If fourth examiner accepts the thesis, then the viva-voce examination will be held. The reasons for rejection of the thesis should be clear and conveyed to the candidate, PhD Guide, Vice Chancellor and also brought to the notice of Academic Council and/or Board of Management of MGMIHS.

22.6.3 Thesis Accepted with Modification

If any of the two examiners suggest certain additional experiments or amendments, the student will be allowed to resubmit the thesis after completing the required extra work. In the event of any clarification or observation sought or made by evaluators, the same will be communicated to the candidate and Guide through the Head of the Institution by the Examination Section.

The work that has been resubmitted shall be sent to the same examiners who evaluated the thesis earlier. If found absolutely necessary the examiner(s) serially next on the panel may be invited for evaluation work, at the discretion of the Vice Chancellor

22.7 Viva-Voce Examination

22.7.1 If the reports of internal and external examiners recommend award of PhD

Degree, either with or without minor corrections, the Controller of Examinations will invite PhD Guide to be the convener of Viva Voce examination and co-ordinate thesis defence of the candidate. The reports received from the examiners will be given to the PhD Guide who will bring the reports to the notice of all the external evaluators, at the time of thesis defence.

22.7.2 (a) The two external examiners, who had earlier evaluated the PhD thesis, will be invited to conduct viva-voce examination. Date of examination will be fixed in consultation with the two examiners. The venue will be at any of the campuses of MGMIHS, Navi Mumbai or Aurangabad.

22.7.2 (b) The viva-voce examination based among other things, on the critiques given in the evaluation report, shall be conducted by the Research Supervisor and at least one of the two external examiners, and shall be open to be attended by Members of the Research Advisory Committee, all faculty members of the Department, other research scholars and other interested experts/researchers.

22.7.3 Information about the Viva-Voce Examination, mentioning the Topic of PhD Thesis, Names of Candidate and Guide, date and venue should be widely disseminated within the University, and if possible among other institutions. It should be done at least 7 days before the date of Viva-Voce Examination.

22.7.4 PhD Scholar will be asked to make a brief presentation, for about 45 minutes, summarizing the research work carried out by him/her with emphasis on emergence of new information and its usefulness.

22.7.5 Thereafter the examiners will seek clarification for the points they had raised at the time of submitting their reports. Soon thereafter, the discussion will be open to all members of the SAC, faculty and research scholars in audience. The feedback and comments obtained from them will be suitably incorporated into the report and appended to the thesis subsequently.

22.7.6 Following the Viva Voce examination, the recommendations from the Examiners shall be submitted in specified format, specify either of the following two concluding recommendations:

The PhD Degree be awarded to the student,

OR

The student should undertake a fresh Viva-Voce and Open Defence after modification of research/thesis as submitted

22.7.7 The PhD Guide, as a co-ordinator of PhD Viva-Voce Examination, will get the report signed from the Examiners (In the format provided by Controller of Examinations) and submit to the Controller of Examinations.

22.7.8 In case the Examiners have recommended a fresh Viva-Voce and Open Defense, the candidate will be permitted one more attempt within three months.

The Controller of Examinations will decide the schedule for the fresh Viva-Voce and Open Defence. No second chance will be given to the Candidate.

If in the second attempt, two of the three examiners are still not satisfied with the presentation or responses to the questions raised, the thesis will considered as rejected.

22.7.9 In case the Examiners at the Viva-Voce and Open Defence recommend award of PhD Degree to the student, minor changes, correction of typographical errors, correction of references, reanalysis of data, clarifications, retyping, correction in Figures suggested by the examiners should be incorporated in the library copy and submitted to the Controller of Examinations before Degree is notified.

22.8 Award of PhD Degree

22.8.1 The Examiners at the Viva-Voce and Open Defence recommend award of PhD Degree to the student, the Controller of Examinations shall approach the Academic Council for its permission to award PhD Degree to the student. It shall enclose copies of all the reports of the examiners for reference of the Academic Council.

22.8.2 The Academic Council, after going through all the reports of the examiners shall give necessary instructions on any one of the following lines:
The thesis is accepted for the award of PhD Degree, OR The thesis is rejected for the award of PhD Degree.

22.8.3 In case the Academic Council recommends rejection, it will state reasons for the same and shall also give necessary instructions to the student regarding the future course of action.

22.8.4 If the Academic Council accepts the thesis for award of PhD Degree, the student shall be declared to have passed the PhD Degree examination and the following certificates shall be awarded to the candidate:

22.8.5 Notification: This shall notify the award of the PhD Degree to the student. It shall be signed and issued by the Controller of Examinations.

22.8.6 Provisional Certificate: A Provisional Certificate, intimating the student that he/she has passed the PhD Degree examination, and that he/she is eligible for award of PhD Degree shall be issued by the Examination Section.

22.9 Migration Certificate

A 'No Objection Certificate' shall be issued to the student upon request to enable him/her to migrate to another recognized University/Institute for higher studies. It shall be signed and issued by the Registrar or other competent authority.

22.10 Degree Certificate

22.10.1 The conferment of the degree on the student and the award of the degree certificate shall be made at the Convocation of the University. The student will make payment of necessary fee. The Degree certificate shall be signed and issued by the Vice Chancellor and the Controller of Examinations.

22.10.2 On award of PhD Degree to the student, the total number of copies of the thesis available with the Examination Section shall be distributed in preferential order as follows:

Soft copy to UGC and Academic Section. Hard copy to Academic Section, Research Guide, Student and Library.

22.10.3 Following the successful completion of the evaluation process and before the announcement of the award of the PhD Degree, the University shall submit an electronic copy of the Ph. D. thesis to the INFLIBNET, for hosting the same so as to make it accessible to all Institutions/Colleges.

GUIDELINES TO CHECK PLAGIARISM

Preamble :

MGM Institute of Health Sciences, Kamothe, Navi Mumbai was established as Deemed University u/s 3 of UGC Act, 1956 on 30.08.2006. It is recognized by UGC and is empowered to award degree under section 22 of the UGC act, 1956. MGM Institute of Health Sciences has been accredited "A" grade by National Assessment & Accreditation Council (NAAC) in 2014. MGMIHS is offering various UG, PG, Super speciality and Ph.D. programme in Medical Sciences, Nursing, Physiotherapy, Biomedical Sciences and Rehabilitation.

A research scholar is supposed to have adequate ethical and moral standards steering clear from all types of academic misconduct. Therefore MGM Institute of Health Sciences has adopted University Grants Commission (Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions) Regulations, 2018 New Delhi, the 23rd July, 2018 (F.1-18/2010(CPP-II). and formulated the following guidelines. “Year” means the academic session in which a proven offence has been committed.

3. Objectives

3.1 To create awareness about responsible conduct of research, thesis, dissertation, publications, presentations, posters, patent, projects, promotion of academic integrity and prevention of misconduct including plagiarism in academic writing among student, faculty, researcher and staff.

3.2 To establish institutional mechanism through education and training to facilitate responsible conduct of research, thesis, dissertation, publications, presentations, posters, patent, projects, promotion of academic integrity and deterrence from plagiarism.

3.3 To develop systems to detect plagiarism and to set up mechanisms to prevent plagiarism and punish a student, faculty, researcher or staff of MGM Institute of Health Sciences/constituent units committing the act of plagiarism.

4. Duties of University/constituent units:

MGM Institute of Health Sciences and its constituent units has established the mechanism as prescribed in University Grants Commission (Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions) Regulations, 2018 New Delhi, the 23rd July, 2018 (F.1-18/2010(CPP-II) regulations, to enhance awareness about responsible conduct of research and academic activities, to promote academic integrity and to prevent plagiarism.

5. Awareness Programs and Trainings:

MGM Institute of Health Sciences/Constituent units Head shall instruct students, faculty, researcher and staff about proper attribution, seeking permission of the author wherever necessary, acknowledgement of source compatible with the needs and specificities of disciplines and in accordance with rules, international conventions and regulations governing the source.

MGM Institute of Health Sciences/Constituent units Head shall conduct sensitization seminars/awareness programs every semester on responsible conduct of research, thesis, dissertation, promotion of academic integrity and ethics in education for students, faculty, researcher and staff.

MGM Institute of Health Sciences/Constituent units Head shall :

Include the cardinal principles of academic integrity in the curricula of Undergraduate(UG)/Postgraduate(PG)/Master's degree etc. as a compulsory course work/module.

Include elements of responsible conduct of research and publication ethics as a compulsory course work/module for Masters and Research Scholars.

Include elements of responsible conduct of research and publication ethics in Orientation and Refresher Courses organized for faculty and staff members of the MGM Institute of Health Sciences/Constituent units.

Train student, faculty, researcher and staff for using plagiarism detection tools and reference management tools.

Establish facility equipped with modern technologies for detection of plagiarism.

Encourage student, faculty, researcher and staff to register on international researcher's Registry systems.

Prepare SOP, guidelines, in this regard time to time, to be followed by student, faculty, researcher and staff

6. Methods of Plagiarism

Quoting directly another person's language, paraphrasing, data, illustration and tables, without due acknowledgment.

Copying any portion of book/article/report/monograph/dissertation /thesis without due citation.
