Dear Sir/Madam,

The National Flag represents hopes and aspirations of the people of the country and hence should occupy a position of honor. It is the symbol of our national pride. It has been brought to the notice that on important events, the National Flag made of plastic are being used in place of paper flag. These plastic flags being non biodegradable do not get decomposed easily. Appropriate disposal of National Flags made of plastic with dignity of the flag is a big problem. Whoever in any public place burns, mutilates, defaces, defiles, disfigures, destroys, tramples upon or otherwise shows disrespect to or brings into contempt the Indian National Flag or any part of it, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both. The 'Flag Code of India, 2002' and 'The Prevention of Insults to National Honor Act, 1971' are available on the Ministry's website www.mha.nic.in.

This is to request you to put in place an effective mechanism to create awareness for strict adherence of the provisions contained in the Act and Flag Code (also available on UGC website www.ugc.ac.in). Furthermore, to ensure that on important national, cultural and sports events, paper flags are used by all and are not discarded or thrown on the ground after the event, wide publicity be done to discourage National Flags made of plastic. If they are used, they are to be disposed off in private consistent with the dignity of the flag. Please do convey these instructions to all the colleges affiliated to your university.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

200 (Jaspal S. Sandhu)

The National Flag represents hopes and aspirations of the people of the country and hence should occupy a position of honor. It is the symbol of our national pride. It has been brought to the notice that on important events, the National Flag made of plastic are being used in place of paper flag. These plastic flags being non biodegradable do not get decomposed easily. Appropriate disposal of National Flags made of plastic with dignity of the flag is a big problem. Whoever in any public place burns, mutilates, defaces, defiles, disfigures, destroys, tramples upon or otherwise shows disrespect to or brings into contempt the Indian National Flag or any part of it, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both. The 'Flag Code of India, 2002' and 'The Prevention of Insults to National Honor Act, 1971' are available on the Ministry's website www.mha.nic.in.

This is to request you to put in place an effective mechanism to create awareness for strict adherence of the provisions contained in the Act and Flag Code (also available on UGC website www.ugc.ac.in). Furthermore, to ensure that on important national, cultural and sports events, paper flags are used by all and are not discarded or thrown on the ground after the event, wide publicity be done to discourage National Flags made of plastic. If they are used, they are to be disposed off in private consistent with the dignity of the flag. Please do convey these instructions to all the colleges affiliated to your university.

Yours sincerely,

MGMIHS: First prize winning essay Rethink India survey on Gandhian values CMGM SCHOOL OF PHYSIOTHERAPY)

RELEVANCE OF GANDHIAN VALUES IN TODAY'S WORLD.

"Strikingly, different was the expression in his eyes; Suddenly I felt guilty of all my lies; His lips parted in a smile, so pure; He left me spellbound that's for sure."

Mahatma Gandhi is described as the magic man of Asia, an apostle of non-violence and preacher of truth. The greatest scientists, Eienstein, said that the coming generations would not easily believe that such a man ever lived on the earth. The greatest thing about him was that he was human to the core and had a loring heart for the poor and homeless. He felt for all and wished well to the entire humanity. He not only gained freedom for his own country, but also prompted other world leaders to fight for freedom peacefully.

'YOU MUST BE THE CHANGE, YOU WISH TO SEE IN THE WORLD!'

There are some values of behaviour that can never become irrelevant; no matter what the scenario and no matter what the century. So, which are these basic ralues which were relevant in the beginning of 20th century and have lost their significance today? These ralues avere simplicity i merging with the common man, nonviolence and prayer. As far as these values are concerned, not even the hardest of criminals will call any of these irrelevant.

If the question is asked whether Gandhian values are relevant even today? The answer is definitely YES! To some extent; they are relevant and are followed not only in India but also by many great leaders all over the world. In Indian context, principle of Satyagrah still holds good. Example is Jessica Lal's case. Through peaceful protest in the form of candle march almost all over the world, justice was delivered. Even India's foreign policy is based on peaceful co-existence and is reflected in not indulging in aggression first though India remains prepared as the security threats accumulate. As rightly said by our Great Prime Minister,

As rightly said by our Great Prime Minister, Narendra Modi ji during his speech at the US Congress, Gandhiji's non-violence inspired the heroism of Martin Luther King. In modern times, non-violent methods of action have been a powerful tool for social protest and revolutionary social and political change. Delivering a speech at the auditorium of University of Oslo in 1964, Martin Luther King said Gandhi led a long and successful non-violent struggle against British rule in India. He also said that he had adopted Gandhis non-violent method in the campaigns to win civil rights for African - Americans in the US The fundamental principles of Gandhism are more relevant today when caster class and religious differences are so pronounced said Douglas Atlen, professor of philosophy at the University of Maine, US and distinguished chair in Gandhian philosophy, Itt Bombay.

Rajmohan Gandhi's book 'Why Gandhi Still Matters' seems to suggest the framework for understanding the relevance of Gandhi in contemporary times, particularly during the year 2019 which is the birth anniversary 150th year of Mahatma Gahdhi.

With the world facing terrorism and other forms of violence, Mahatma Gandhi's principle of 'Ahimsa' is very relevant.

Scanned by CamScanner

Barack Obama commented, "In my life, I have always looked to Mahatma Gandhi as an inspiration because he embodies the kind of transformational change that can be made when ordinary people come together to do extraordinary things."

Thus, Gandhij's principles are surely relevant in today's world. For example, Ahimsa or non-violence is still and will remain the most relevant way of handling situations. The crisis between India and Pakistan could have been solved long back if India had been non-violent towards their terror attacks. Fires from both side only led to "an eye for eye making us blind" towards humanity. Even in handling internal affairs like those in Kashmir, Punjab, Central India or in the North Eastern states of Assam, Manipur, Nagaland or Mizoram, it would have been an entirely different situation if non-violence would have been adopted. Communal riots and atrocities on areas dominated by a particular community could stop by being non-violent. Self-sufficiency with home spun khadi or goods that India can manufacture in its own is a very The new slogan for the same is what our Prime Minister Narendra Modi named as "make in India"

Gandhij's dream of creating a global India, etual advancements and maintains its identity is blooming true day by day. The path shown or followed by Gandhiji at that time still remains a very valid one if somebody chooses to tread on it. All his principles should serve as a beacon of light to guide humanity to a better world. He was the leader of past, runs through the present and marches towards the future. I myself feel so honoured to be a part of MGM Institute of Health Sciences which follows this path of Gandhiji. We can experi-ence his values in every aspect of MGM. Be it he teachers, students or any other person who is the part of this family. So, let us all come together to join this mission of Gandhiji and let us all strive to make India which Gandhiji would be proud of. Keep your behaviour positive, because your behaviour becomes your habits. Keep your habits positive, because your behaviour becomes your habits.
